BISP Chairperson meets poor, deserving women

THATTA, March 1 (APP): Chairperson Benazir Income Support Programme (BISP) Marvi Memon MNA visited Thatta on Sunday. She went round BISP offices in Dhabeji, Gharo and Makli. She met the deserving women and said that the government is striving to offer assistance and support to the poor and down trodden masses.

Marvi Memon said that she has visited Thatta on the directives of Prime Minister Mian Muhammad Nawaz Sharif. She said that she will strive for service to the poor people so that they lead a good and prosperous life. She said that there was need for awareness about this Programme so that more people may get the benefit. Later she left for Hyderabad.
