

1. NEW POVERTY SURVEY TO BE TRANSPARENT: MARVI

Published in The News, May 19, 2016

addressing to the local representatives, notables and beneficiaries during her visit to Mirpur (AJK).

Prime Minister Muhammad Nawaz Sharif, she said, emerged victorious after answering the questions from opposition in the National Assembly.

The government was always ready to cooperate with the opposition on Terms of Reference for the judicial commission and now parliamentary committee was working on it, she added.

The Benazir Income Support Programme (BISP) Chairperson reiterated that the new poverty survey would be transparent and the BISP would put in hard efforts to make it the best in the world.

Mirpur, she said, was ignored in the last survey conducted in 2010 under the previous government. "This time it would get its due share," she added.

2. PML-N TO WIN NEXT GENERAL ELECTIONS DUE TO ITS PERFORMANCE: MARVI

Published in Business Recorder, May 19, 2016

ISLAMABAD: Minister of State and BISP Chairperson Marvi Memon Wednesday said the Pakistan Muslim League-Nawaz (PML-N) would be victorious in the next elections due to its performance.

"Confused opposition should concentrate on public service in their respective areas of power rather than mudslinging," she said while

MoS and Chairperson BISP MNA Marvi Memon addressing BISP Beneficiaries at Mirpur (AJ&K) on 18 May, 2016.

Marvi said that new poverty survey would employ the latest technology. Desk approach would be complemented by door to door survey.

She said survey teams would be accompanied by monitoring teams as well to ensure transparency and best international practices.

"All the loopholes of the last survey conducted in 2010 would be tackled in the upcoming survey," she said.

The BISP Chairperson is visiting the pilot phase districts of new poverty survey to sensitize the masses on National Socio-Economic Registry (NSER) update.

In this connection she visited Divisional Office BISP Mirpur, Nangi and New Mirpur City accompanied by PML (N) leaders Ch Ijaz Raza and Ch Saeed. Pilot phase of new poverty survey will start after Ramadan followed by national roll out in January 2017.

Chairperson further added that she is thankful to the Prime Minister Muhammad Nawaz Sharif and Finance Minister Senator Ishaq Dar for entrusting her with the most sacred responsibility of representing the poorest of the poor.

She said, "I proud to lead the vulnerable women as these women represent untapped potential of the beloved land and BISP is investing in them so that they may graduate out of poverty and contribute to economy".

(Pakistan Observer, Patriot, Dunya and Jinnah also carried the story and picture)