- ❖ Waseela-e-Taleem programme

Rationale for the National Mentoring Programme

Can they cope with the changes in their lives after gaining education?

But are they ready for it?

"Protected under the constitution"
What does that mean?

Are they aware of their responsibilities?

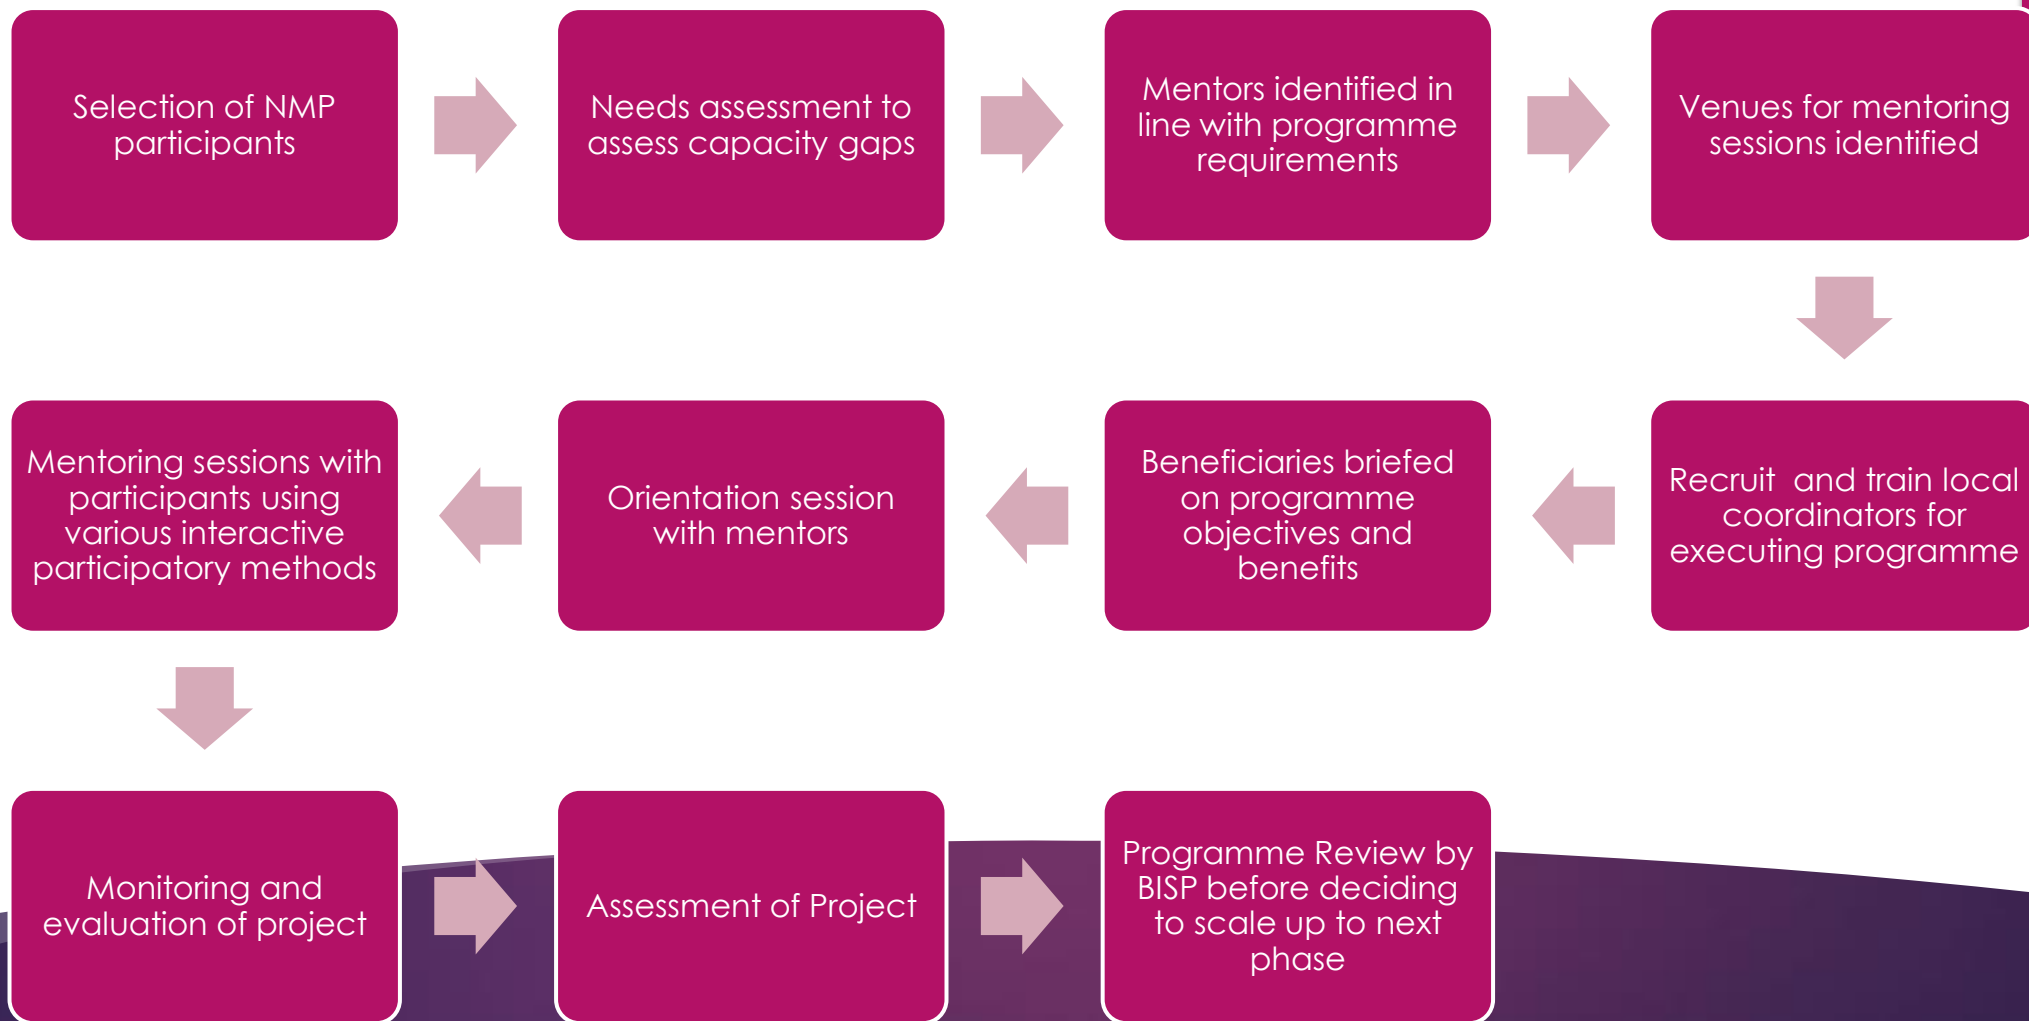

Do they know about their political rights?

Do they know of the challenges that exist beyond their four walls?

The BISP beneficiaries are:

- ❑ Women in need of support.
- ❑ Women who will improve the quality of life of their families.
- ❑ Women building self-respect and self-esteem
- ❑ Change agents
- ❑ Voters contributing to strengthening the democratic system

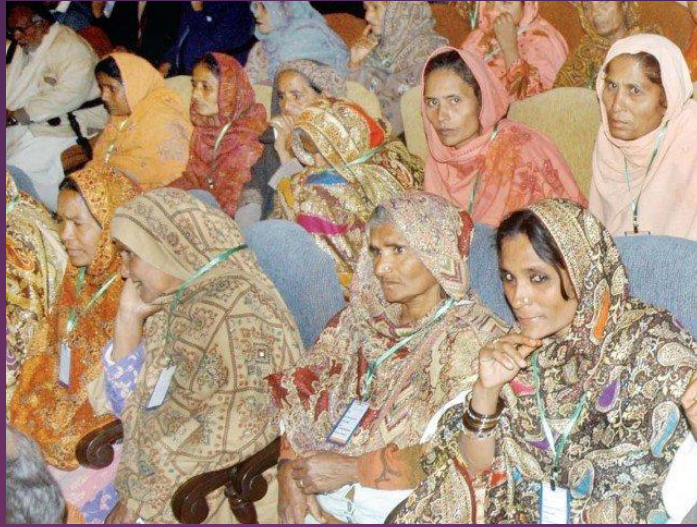

MODUS OPERANDI

EXPECTED OUTPUT

- ❑ The participants in the mentoring sessions will be more aware regarding the areas they have been exposed to.
- ❑ Their responses after these sessions can be gauged to assess their effectiveness.
